

Tatsuaki Okamoto

Director, NTT Research CIS Laboratories

I received B.E., M.E., and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Tokyo, Tokyo, Japan, in 1976, 1978, and 1988, respectively. With NTT since 1978, I am an NTT Fellow and, presently, Director of NTT Research in the USA. Specifically, I focus on research in cryptography and information security.

In the past, I have served as President of the Japan Society for Industrial and Applied Mathematics (JSIAM), Director of International Association of Cryptology Research(IACR), and as Program Chair of many international conferences. I received the Best and Life-Time Achievement awards from the IEICE, the Distinguished Lecturer award from the IACR, the Purple-Ribbon award from Japanese government, the RSA Conference award and the Asahi award.
